The Meeting To-Night.

Our citizens will not forget the meeting at the court room this evening. There is a peculiar propriety in the citizens of Janesville and Rock county appropriately observing the day designated for a tribute to the memory of a man so well known and highly esteemed as the late Gov. Harvey.

THE NEW MEXICO ARMY.—John W. Allen, J. S. Parker, A. G. Allen and William Addy, who have been connected with the sutler's department of the 13th Wisconsin regiment, returned to this city yesterday afternoon. They left Lawrence Monday, the 21st, and Mr. Allen informs us that the report in circulation of the transfer of the New Mexico army to Pittsburgh Landing and Corinth is wholly unfounded. The 1st Kansas regiment left Lawrence for Fort Riley last Saturday, the 19th; the 12th Wisconsin left Sunday, the 20th, for the same destination; the 7th Kansas (cavalry) on Monday the 21st, and the 13th Wisconsin was to leave Tuesday the 22d. This force is under command of General Price, who expected to start for Ft. Riley about the 10th of May with his entire command.

RETURNED.—D. D. Dodge, who left this city with Capt. Ely's company as ensign, returned last Wednesday afternoon, having been discharged from the service on account of ill-health. When Mr. Dodge resigned, he held the commission of first lieutenant in the company. The 2d regiment is in McDowell's division, and under command of Lt. Col. Fairchild, who is well esteemed and much respected throughout the regiment. Col. O'Connor, Lieut. Dodge states, has not been in active command of the regiment since his appointment. He is hanging on to the pay, $225 per month, while he is discharging none of his duties. Is it not about time that he resigned or do the work he was selected to perform? The health of Capt. Ely's company was generally good when Lieut. Dodge left.

FROM THE THIRTEENTH REGIMENT.—We learn from a private letter, written by E. Stevens, of Harmony, to his friends, that some forty or fifty of the 13th regiment, left Lawrence for Leavenworth, on the 18th, to go into the general hospital at that place. Among them were Henry Wilcox, and Corporals Pierce and Fisher of company B. David Mattison of company D, was also among them. A good many of the regiment are sick on account of bad water. Adam Airs, of Mount Zion, died on the 15th. He was about 21 years of age, and much respected.

THE END OF THE CHICKEN CASE.—The night after the appointment of the receiver in the chicken and jackknife case, the coop in which the chickens were confined was broken open and the inmates taken away. Inasmuch as the attorneys in the case had chickens for dinner the next day, it is suspected that they were the trespassers. This ends that part of the case, and it is now supposed that the sheriff will get the coat of the plaintiff, the deputy will take his shirt, the attorneys appropriate the balance of his personal property, and the judicial officer will "skin" him.

VINDEX.

[The usual end of a law suit.—Ems, Gazette.]

We understand that a nest of "copper-heads" have been discovered near Indian Ford, in this county. We should not wonder if the warm spring weather, when it comes, would develop other specimens of this reptile which are said to be increasing in the west.

The famous Wigwag, at Chicago, has been converted into stores, making ten in the whole, on both streets.

A few weeks since, a prisoner at Camp Douglas murdered a fellow prisoner, both from Tennessee, while in a dispute. The murderer has been delivered over to the civil authorities for trial.

Exchange is dull at Chicago, at 100 premium. Money is plenty, and it is expected that interest will decline to 6 per cent.

CLEANING UP.—A large portion of the business men on Main street have been at work with hoes and brooms cleaning up the street. This work has made so great an improvement in the looks of the street that we expect every dull day will be employed in the same manner.

FOUND.—A small cape. Apply at this office.

There were only seven votes in the senate against establishing diplomatic relations with Liberia and Hayti, which is a larger majority than was expected.

Death of Governor Harvey.

Down by the head O'Connor we lie!
The first in field and last in battle;
Thy hopes lie buried in the grave;
Thy hopes lie buried in the grave;
In which our children lie asleep.

The flag at half mast sadly droop,
The bells toll out a solemn wail;
As on the southern breeze there comes,
With lightning speed, the sick'ning tale!

O, dreadful night! O, fatal sleep!
O, rushing river's angry tide!
Was there no quick, connective arm
To save a life so true and tried?

Breathes, lofty Plaza, his requiem,
Sing poems in thy forest gloom;
And ye, Virgils, that are loved,
Bring forth your gems to deck his tomb.

O, State, bereft of him you loved,
O, Mother, from thy loving breast,
Our friend and brother, statesman, chief,
At once, slunk calmly to his rest.

We cannot hide these burning tears—
But kiss in trust the chastening rod;
Through reason sleeps faith is not blind,
But sees in all the hand of God.

A. M. THOMSON.

A correspondent of the Washington Star, describing the occupation of the Virginia town of Tappanhook by our forces, says:

"When our men first landed, an old negro told them not to drink any liquor, as it was all poisoned, and on landing the second time they were invited to drink by one of the inhabitants, but they very politely declined the invitation to do so."

The Washington Republican avers that not one fourth of the sum appropriated by the emancipation bill for the compensation of slave owners, will be needed, so many of the slaves having already been run off by their masters in anticipation of the passage of the act.

The country for twelve miles out of Cairo is covered with water.

Col. Canby has left Fort Craig, in New Mexico, with 900 men, and will attempt to form a junction with the forces at Fort Union, west of Santa Fe. The Texans are at Albuquerque, and will, probably, attempt to cut him off. There will be news of a battle very soon.

PROGRESS IN DELAWARE.—The Delaware State Journal applauds warmly the course of Hon. George P. Fisher, from that state, in voting for emancipation in the federal district, and intimates that popular sentiment is running strongly in the same direction. The Delaware Inquirer, a Douglass democratic paper, publishes communications which justify Mr. Fisher very decidedly. A strong effort, it is understood, will shortly be made to place gallant little Delaware among the galaxy of free states.

The republican caucus at Washington was nearly unanimous in favor of some kind of a confiscation bill. The house has referred the whole matter to a committee of seven, by a vote of 90 to 31, which is considered a test vote.

THE BERDAN SHARPSHOOTERS.—The regiment of sharpshooters, raised by Col. Berdan, chiefly from western states, are distinguishing themselves most prominently at the siege of Yorktown. Stationed in the advance of our forces, they watch every movement of the enemy with sleepless vigilance. If a rebel head is shown above the ramparts within 800 yards, it is instantly perforated with a leaden cone from a telescopic rifle in the hand of a sharpshooter. Several batteries of the rebels have been rendered temporarily unserviceable by the skill with which Berdan's riflemen pick off the gunners. It is said that each riflemen scores up, in private style, the number of rebels he has killed, by cutting a mark upon the butt of his rifle. The rebels keep an equally accurate account, no doubt. Berdan's men are clad in grey uniforms, and the rebels had got to know them by sight. They were not afraid of the blue coats at 500 yards. Some of Berdan's boys changed their garb to blue, and were allowed to get within five or six hundred paces of a score of rebels, when drawing a bead, they knocked over eight of the rebels at the first pop at them. The rest made themselves scarce on the "double quick." At the outbreak of this war the southerners boasted of the advantage they hand in their trained riflemen over the Yankees. But Berdan and his men have made that boasting vain.

LOST.—On Tuesday afternoon, a medium sized, oval, gold breast-pin was lost somewhere between Mr. Tallman's residence and that of Mr. Strong, on Main street. The party who lost it crossed the lower bridge. The pin had a glass center, with pearl settings about it. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at this office. ap23d31

[The usual end of a law suit.—EBS. GAZETTE.]

We understand that a nest of "cooper heads" have been discovered near Indian Ford, in this county. We should not wonder if the warm spring weather, when it comes, would develop other specimens of this reptile which are said to be increasing in the west.

The famous Wigwam, at Chicago, has been converted into stores, making ten in the whole, on both streets.

A few weeks since, a prisoner at Camp Douglas murdered a fellow prisoner, both from Tennessee, while in a dispute. The murderer has been delivered over to the civil authorities for trial.

Exchange is dull at Chicago, at 1/2 premium. Money is plenty, and it is expected that interest will decline to 6 per cent.

CEASING UP.—A large portion of the business men on Main street have been at work with hoes and brooms cleaning up the street. This work has made so great an improvement in the looks of the street that we expect every dull day will be employed in the same manner.

FORN.—A small case. Apply at this office.

There were only seven votes in the senate against establishing diplomatic relations with Liberia and Hayti, which is a larger majority than was expected.

Death of Governor Harvey.

How down thy head O Commonwealth!
Thy darling now for thee to rest;
Thy hopes lie buried in the grave,
In which our chiefest is asleep.

The days at half past sadly drop,
The bells toll out a solemn wail;
As on the southern breeze there comes,
With lightning speed, the sick'ning tale!

O, dreadful night! O, fatal tide!
O, rushing river's angry tide!
Was there no quick, omnipotent arm
To save a life so true and tried?

Breaths, lofty Pines, his requiem,
Sing praises to thy forest gloom:
And ye, Prairies, that he loved,
Bring Flora's gems to deck his tomb.

O, State, bereft of him you loved,
O, Mother, from thy loving breast,
Our friend and brother, statesman, chief,
At once, sinks sadly to his rest!

We cannot hide these burning tears—
But kiss to rest the burning brow;
Though reason sleeps faith is not blind,
But sees in all the hand of God.

A. M. THOMSON.

A correspondent of the Washington Star, describing the occupation of the Virginia town of Tappahannock by our forces, says:

"When our men first landed, an old negro told them not to drink any liquor, as it was all poisoned, and on landing the second time they were invited to drink by one of the inhabitants, but they very politely declined the invitation to do so."

The Washington Republican avers that not one fourth of the sum appropriated by the emancipation bill for the compensation of slave owners, will be needed, so many of the slaves having already been run off by their masters in anticipation of the passage of the act.

The country for twelve miles out of Cairo is covered with water.

Col. Canby has left Fort Craig, in New Mexico, with 900 men, and will attempt to form a junction with the forces at Fort Union, west of Santa Fe. The Texans are at Albuquerque, and will, probably, attempt to cut him off. There will be news of a battle very soon.

PROGRESS IN DELAWARE.—The Delaware State Journal applauds warmly the course of Hon. George P. Fisher, from that state, in voting for emancipation in the federal district, and intimates that popular sentiment is running strongly in the same direction. The Delaware Inquirer, a Douglass democratic paper, publishes communications which justify Mr. Fisher very decidedly. A strong effort, it is understood, will shortly be made to place gallant little Delaware among the galaxy of free states.

The republican caucus at Washington was nearly unanimous in favor of some kind of a confiscation bill. The house has referred the whole matter to a committee of seven, by a vote of 90 to 31, which is considered a test vote.

THE BERDAN SHARPSHOOTERS.—The regiment of sharpshooters, raised by Col. Berdan, chiefly from western states, are distinguishing themselves most prominently at the siege of Yorktown. Stationed in the advance of our forces, they are showing movement of the enemy without loss of a single shot. A rebel head is shown above the ramparts within 800 yards, it is instantly perforated with a leaden cone from a telescopic rifle in the hand of a sharpshooter. Several batteries of the rebels have been rendered temporarily unserviceable by the skill with which Berdan's riflemen pick off the gunners. It is said that each rifleman scores up, in prairie style, the number of rebels he has killed, by cutting a mark up on the butt of his rifle. The rebels keep an equally accurate account, no doubt. Berdan's men are clad in gray uniforms, and the rebels had got to know them by sight. They were not afraid of the blue coats at 500 yards. Some of Berdan's boys changed their garb to blue, and were allowed to get within five or six hundred paces of a score of rebels, when drawing a bead, they knocked over eight of the rebels at the first pop at them. The rest made themselves scarce on the "double quick." At the outbreak of this war the southerners boasted of the advantage they had in their trained riflemen over the Yankees. But Berdan and his men have made that boasting vain.

LOST.—On Tuesday afternoon, a medium sized, oval, gold breast-pin was lost somewhere between Mr. Tallman's residence and that of Mr. Strong, on Main street. The party who lost it crossed the lower bridge. The pin had a glass center, with pearl settings about it. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving it at this office.
